

THE PATRONS OF THE ARTS IN THE VATICAN MUSEUMS

Corporate Membership

Corporate Membership with the Patrons of the Arts in the Vatican Museums offers benefits and access to the oldest museum in the world, home to a renowned and diverse collection viewed by more than four million people annually.

STAND APART

Becoming part of the Patrons family enables you to align with the one of the world's largest art collections representing thousands of years of human civilization, a multitude of cultures and artistic treasures throughout the ages.

MAKE AN IMPACT

Offer your clients and Board Members the opportunity to attend local and international events as well as enjoy exclusive, behind-the-scenes access to the Vatican Museums when they come to Rome.

LEGACY OF SUCCESS

Membership fees are used for restoration work, conservation projects, equipment for the restoration laboratories, and acquisition of art. Your company's name will be engraved on an Official Vatican Museums plaque and displayed alongside the masterpiece or exhibition which your funds aided, visible to the millions upon millions of visitors that stroll through the galleries every year.

ENTHUSE AND INSPIRE

The Patrons of the Arts and Vatican Museums are dedicated to the restoration, conservation and preservation of the works of art housed in the multiple ancient galleries of the smallest country in the world. The PAVM aims to make art accessible to all and is committed to interpretation and education. Vatican Museums Corporate Sponsors also help support special exhibitions as well as educational and community programs.

ACCESS AND EXPOSURE

Corporate Members receive a complimentary subscription to the Vatican Museums Report and eNewsletter. Members also receive accreditation in-gallery, online and in Vatican Museums Reports.

Patrons come from all over the world, representing various religious backgrounds, and bring different experiences to the Patrons Chapters throughout North America, Europe and Asia.

Corporate contributions are vital to the Vatican Museums' ability to preserve and maintain the works of art, exhibitions and public programs within. Annual support from the corporate community is essential in helping the Museums continue to serve as a key cultural, educational and spiritual resource that contributes to a learning experience for the millions of visitors that stroll the galleries every year. In return, the PAVM's Corporate Program provides your company with exclusive benefits. For a donation of $5,000 to the Restoration & Preservation Efforts of the Vatican Museums, your Company can have an EXCLUSIVE, BEHIND-THE-SCENES experience at the Vatican.
